DEFENDANT ORGANIZATION: Animal Pharmaceuticals, Inc.,
CASE NUMBER: 2:06CR02116-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14. Defendant shall provide the supervising probation officer with access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of defendant's Federal income tax returns. Defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising probation officer. Defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any major asset (not including those items in inventory), without the advance approval of the supervising probation officer.
15. Defendant shall surrender or make available for review, any documents and/or business records, requested by the supervising probation officer.
16. Defendant shall not incur any new debt, open additional lines of credit, or enter into any financial contracts, without the advance approval of the supervising probation officer and if the Court imposed restitution payment plan is not current. If defendant is current with the payment plan, no advance approval is required.
17. Defendant shall submit to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall warn persons with whom defendant shares a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
18. Defendant shall within 120 days after sentencing, develop and implement a policy and procedure for timely reporting to appropriate government officials any suspected or possible violation of law in connection with animal pharmaceuticals. Prior to implementation, this policy and procedure is to be reviewed with the supervising probation officer.
19. Defendant shall within 120 days after sentencing, develop and implement a policy and procedure that protects employees who report suspected violations of the law from corporate retaliation. Prior to implementation, this policy and procedure is to be reviewed with the supervising probation officer.
20. Defendant shall within 120 days of sentencing, provide written notice to all employees of the charge of conviction, the term of supervision, the conditions of supervision, and the name and telephone number of the supervising probation officer. This notice will be signed by each employee and retained in that employee's personnel file. All future employees shall receive the same notification at the time of hiring. The written notice shall be developed in cooperation with the supervising probation officer.
21. Defendant shall notify the supervising officer prior to the implementation, modification, or termination of any policy or procedure addressing animal pharmaceuticals. Defendant shall review with the supervising officer any changes in policy and procedure prior to the implementation of those changes.
